

XV Olinca Model United Nations 2018

Welcome Letter
February 23rd and 24th

The secretariat of OLINMUN 2018 would like to welcome you to this fifteenth edition of the Olinca Model United Nations, where I have been given the privilege and responsibility of being the Secretary General alongside my undersecretaries Oscar Luna Palacios and Viviana González Delgadillo. We have been working very hard in order to provide the most appropriate staff, committees and topics with the purpose of creating an OLINMUN that shall exceed all expectations and precedents.

Historically, every Secretary General of OLINMUN and their staff have worked hard to improve as much as possible this event, by implementing new ideas and strategies to render a more realistic as well as enjoyable experience. Therefore, conducive to achieving this goal, this year we have included new committees directed solely for high school, as well as the replacement of some committees that have been held in previous years and the creation of a hosting program for the schools located out-of-town.

Throughout the OLINMUN, MYP and High school will debate a variety of topics of the utmost importance, such as the Humanitarian and Political Crisis in Venezuela, the Separatist Issue in Balochistan and the United Kingdom's agenda to Withdraw from the Euratom Treaty.

Olinca Model United Nations is an event meant for its enjoyment. Nonetheless, as any other MUN, every participant shall commit and take OLINMUN as a serious and formal occasion and be respectful at all times, as it is to you that we entrust the enforcement of diplomacy, collaboration and tolerance.

As the Secretary General I look forward to meeting you.

Best regards,

Diego Mayén Bosch
Secretary General 2018
